All Glory, Praise and Honour
A GATHERING SONG FOR PALM SUNDAY

Mike Stanley & Joanne Boyce
Words by St Theodulph of Orleans d. 821
CCLI & OneLicense No. 5079629

Refrain:
E B E
All glory, praise and honour,
A B E
To thee, Redeemer, King
A B E A
To whom the lips of children made
E B7 E sus E
sweet hosannas ring.

Verses:
A B E
1. Thou art the King of Israel,
A B Emaj7
thou David’s royal Son,
C D G
Who in the Lord’s name comest,
C A9 D B
the King and blessed one.

A B E
2. The company of angels
A B Emaj7
are praising thee on high,
C D G
And mortal men and all things,
C A9 D B
created make reply.

A B E
3. The people of the Hebrews
A B Emaj7
with palms before thee went;
C D G
Our praise and prayer and anthems,
C A9 D B
before thee we present.

Refrain:
E B E
All glory, praise and honour,
A B E
To thee, Redeemer, King
A B E A
To whom the lips of children made
E B7 E sus E
sweet hosannas ring.

A B E
4. To thee before thy passion,
A B Emaj7
they sang their hymns of praise;
C D G
To thee now high exalted,
C A9 D B
our melody we raise.

A B E
5. Thou didst accept their praises,
A B Emaj7
accept the prayers we bring,
C D G
Who in all good delightest,
C A9 D B
thou good and gracious King.

NOTES:

A lilting, contemporary melody for the familiar, traditional Palm Sunday text.
